Northeastern University

ENGW 1111: First-Year Writing

Credits: 4 | Term: Fall 2025 | Instructor: Dr. A. Morgan (sample)
SAMPLE SYLLABUS - created for a transfer-credit demo, not an official document

Course Description

This course introduces students to academic writing as a process of inquiry. Students write argumentative essays, conduct research, and revise their work through peer and instructor feedback.

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

• Write argumentative essays with a clear thesis

• Integrate research sources with proper citation

• Revise drafts based on feedback

• Analyze rhetorical situations and audiences

Topics

argument, thesis, research, citation, revision, essay, rhetoric

Schedule

Weeks	Content
1-3	Rhetorical analysis; audience and purpose
4-6	Building an argument; thesis statements
7-10	Research methods; library databases; MLA/APA citation
11-13	Drafting, peer review and revision
14	Final portfolio

Grading

Component	Weight
Rhetorical analysis essay	20%
Argumentative essay	25%
Research essay	30%
Revision portfolio	15%
Participation	10%